Those Who Called God "My God"

Introduction

In the morning news were two of the most horrific pictures I have ever seen. The first was a group of young people with a banner saying, "Keep God Out of California". The second is a photo of the wild California fires. The first picture is horrific to me because I am looking at people who, if this attitude is maintained, they will only see God as Judge and be banished for ever in the judgment of eternal Hell. The second picture of the fires so devastating are nought compared to the fires of grief and suffering they shall endure in the Lake of Fire. Which of the two is the worst? By far the first is the more horrific for the second is trees and homes but the first is their undying souls. Foolish beyond words are those who want nothing of God in their lives.
